

PLANNING APPLICATIONS SUBMITTED FOR LAND WEST OF DRAYCOTT

Both developers, Persimmons and Robert Hitchings, have now come forward and submitted three separate planning applications on the land West of Draycott. All three applications are now live on the Stroud District Council Planning website.

Every member of the community has the right to comment on any planning application. This is your opportunity to make your feelings known!

Comments should be submitted online at stroud.gov.uk. The planning application search allows you to search for and access valid planning applications. You can search using the application reference number or keyword 'Draycott'. Once you have found the application you can comment on it.

Comments made on social media will not be formally submitted to Stroud District Council.
